

To Toss, or Not to Toss?

Ask yourself:

What is this? (Sounds funny but it is not unusual at all to come across a totally mystifying object)

When was the last time I used it?

Does it serve a worthwhile purpose in my life?

Will I ever use it again?

Do I have duplicates and if so can I get rid of all but one?

Do I have room for it?

Do I love it?

Why do I feel a need to keep it?

Do I need it for tax or legal reasons?

What's the worst thing that can happen if I don't have it?

Does someone else in my household love it or use it?

Would it be difficult or expensive to get another one?

Am I really going to finish this project/craft? If so, when?

Is it more important to me to keep this item than to free up the space it occupies?

Where will I put it so I can find it?
